

St. George Deanery Junior High Gathering

Catholic Carnival “Take a Chance!”

High School Team Application

At every youth gathering, it amazes us youth ministers that our high school students are willing to “take a chance” and bring their faith, their energy and their creativity to each event. Not only could we not do these gatherings without you, we would not want to! In order to be on team for this year’s junior high gathering, you must be in grades 9 thru 12, be willing to help out wherever needed, and be willing to model for the junior high participants Catholic faith in action.

The junior high gathering is March 14, 2010 at Miller City’s old school gym (enter through the double doors in the parking lot or across from the cemetery which is next to the parish center). Team training will begin at 10am and will conclude after clean-up—no later than 7:30pm.

This year we are having high school members present each of the four workshops: take a chance on yourself: making moral choices, take a chance on God: keeping God in your busy schedules, take a chance on YG: (high school youth groups), take a chance on others: service in your local communities and in the world. We need one high school team member from each active youth group to talk to the junior high participants about participating in their high school youth group. We also need one or more youth to talk about the importance of service---so if you have focused on serving during your high school years, locally, nationally or globally, let me know! Also, if a group wants to come up with a fun and creative skit, that would be awesome!!! We will need singers for Mass, Eucharistic Ministers, servers, a commentator and lectors. It would be best to email me to let me know how you want to be involved in the workshops or in the Liturgy, or your ideas for an opening skit.

And as always, your help will be needed with the opening activities, welcoming, decorating and all those other jobs which help to make these gatherings fun and successful☺ Every team member is ask to bring $3.00 for lunch and to dress colorfully (as for a carnival).
